

The Knights Templar School

Summer 2027 Exams Contingency Day – Wednesday 23rd June

The awarding bodies have designated the following date as contingency sessions for examinations;

- Wednesday 23rd June 2027 – morning and afternoon

The designation of a contingency day with the common examination timetable is in the event of national or local disruption to examinations. It is part of the awarding bodies' standard contingency planning for examinations.

In the highly unlikely event that there is a national disruption to a day of examinations in summer 2027, the awarding bodies will liaise with the qualification regulators and the DfE to agree the most appropriate option for managing the impact. As a last resort the affected examinations will be rescheduled.

Although every effort would be taken to keep the impact to a minimum, it is possible that there could be more than one timetable date affected following the disruption, up to and including the contingency day on 23rd June 2027. Centres will be alerted if it was agreed to reschedule the examinations and the affected candidates will be expected to make themselves available in such circumstances. The decision regarding the re-scheduling of examinations will always rest with the awarding body.

Centres must therefore remind candidates that they must remain available until Wednesday 23rd June 2027 should an awarding body need to invoke its contingency plan.

The centre must conduct the examination on the scheduled date unless instructed to do otherwise by the awarding body.

Students taking public examinations should not plan to go on holiday before the 24th June regardless of when their last exam takes place. Where candidates chose not to be available for the rescheduled examination(s) for reasons other than those traditionally covered by special consideration, they will not be eligible for enhanced grading arrangements.